

Tree Allotment

Available at Gungahlin and Woden Cemeteries, a Tree allotment is an ashes grave, with memorialisation by way of a large plaque installed flush to a granite block. The block is positioned at the base of a tree and inset into the ground.

Tree allotments have two purchase options. A tree can be purchased as an individual tree or a shared tree. The individual tree option has provision for a family to have up to six ashes interments and plaques, with the first being included in the cost of the allotment. The shared tree allotment is for one ashes interment and one plaque on a granite block. Prior to interment, Canberra Memorial Parks requires the completion of an Application for Exclusive Right of Allotment an Application for Burial, as well as a copy of the Cremation Certificate.

Interments can take place seven days of the week.

Fresh flowers only are permitted at the grave.

Canberra Memorial Parks discourages any placement of personal, valuable or sentimental items on the site.
